

OFFICIAL CONFIRMATION OF GERMAN INTRIGUE TO ALLY JAPAN AND MEXICO AGAINST THE U. S.

JAPAN AND MEXICO DECLARE ALLIANCE PROPOSED WOULD NOT BE CONSIDERED

Senate Takes Steps to Have President Officially Furnish Full Facts Regarding Sensational Plot Concocted By German Foreign Minister.

LANSING EXPRESSES FULL CONFIDENCE IN FRIENDSHIP OF BOTH JAPAN AND MEXICO

Washington, March 1.—(Associated Press Dispatch)—Full official confirmation of Germany's intrigue to ally Mexico and Japan with her to make war on the United States, as revealed last night by the Associated Press, was given today at the White House, the State Department, and in the Senate.

On the floor of the Senate, it was announced that Democratic Senators had been authorized to state that the revelations, including the text of the instructions from German Foreign Minister Zimmerman to German Minister von Eckhardt at Mexico City, were correct.

Secretary Lansing authorized this statement:

"We do not believe that Japan has had any knowledge of this, or that she would consider any proposition made by an enemy."

As to Mexico, the Secretary said:

"We have confidence that Mexico would not be a party to any such agreement, in view of the friendly relations existing between this Government and the de facto Government of Mexico."

On motion of Senator Lodge, the Senate at once took up a proposal to ask the President to communicate the facts to Congress officially.

After considerable discussion, Senator Hardwick insisted upon an objection to immediate consideration of the Lodge resolution in order that there might be time for deliberation by the Foreign Relations Committee. Senator Stone's request to have the resolution referred to the Foreign Relations Committee without any instructions as to when it should report was adopted by unanimous consent.

The text of the Lodge resolution is as follows:

"That the President be requested to inform the Senate whether the note signed 'Zimmerman' published in the newspapers of the morning of March 1, inviting Mexico to unite with Germany and Japan in war against the United States, is authentic and in the possession of the government of the United States, if authentic, to send to the Senate, if not incompatible with the public interest, any further information in the possession of the United States Government relative to the activities of the Imperial German Government in Mexico."

MEXICAN OFFICIALS SAY EFFORTS VAIN

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Mexico City, March 1.—Most of the Mexican officials here declined today to discuss the effort of Germany to involve Mexico in a war with the United States except to say that they thought such efforts were vain and that Mexico would be neutral.

JAPAN WOULD NOT ENTERTAIN SCHEME

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Washington, March 1.—The Japanese Embassy made the following comment today:
"With regard to the alleged German attempt to induce Japan and Mexico to make war upon the United States, the Japanese Embassy, while making public in the press this morning the Japanese Embassy, while making information as to whether

LACONIA'S TORPEDOING DESTROYED BIGGEST MERCHANT SHIP SUNK SINCE LUSITANIA

S.S. LACONIA

The Laconia torpedoed off the Irish coast with the reported loss of American lives, was the largest ship in the merchant service to be torpedoed by a German submarine since the Lusitania went down. She was also the first steamship to be torpedoed at night, when submarines are supposed to be blind.

The Cunarder was a twin screw vessel of 15,099 gross tonnage, 600 ft. long, with seventy-one feet beam and forty feet depth of hold. She was built in 1911.

For the first nineteen months of the war the Laconia was an auxiliary cruiser patrolling the Indian ocean under command of Captain Irvine, and she was armed on her present voyage with a naval 4.7 gun manned by a crew, who were on the liner when she was cruising. The gun had a range of six miles and fired a shell weighing seventy-five lbs., which exploded on striking the water and scattered in all directions sharpnel designed for penetrating the hull of submarines.

HADFIELD CO. MAY YET LAND SHELL ORDER

British Government Withdraws Objection to Hadfields Filling Contract.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Washington, March 1.—Great Britain has withdrawn her objection and made known her permission for Hadfield Limited, an English munitions concern, to contract with the United States for armor piercing shells of the fourteen and sixteen inch type.

Awards for projectiles totalling more than $3,000,000 was made recently by Secretary Daniels to Hadfields, but cancelled later when the British government asked the company not to proceed with the work so long as "the exigencies of war continued."

Information that the objections had been withdrawn was received today from Ambassador Page at London.

The withdrawal of objections by the British Government may cause the Secretary to re-award the contract to the British concern.

MADAME DEVIOR DIES IN ITALY AT AGE OF 84

(Associated Press Cable.)
Nice, Italy, March 1.—Madame Devior, great grandmother of Yolande Ward, the eleven year old daughter of Eber Ward, of Detroit, is dead here. Madame Devior was 84 years old. Yolande Ward is a niece of the late Clara Ward, of Detroit, whose marriage to Prince Joseph de Chimay was the first of a series of sensational marriage adventures.

ROCHESTER NOW SAFE IN HARBOR

(Associated Press Cable.)
Bordeaux, France, March 1.—The American freighter Rochester has arrived at the mouth of the Gironde. The Rochester anchored off Verdon at 9:30 o'clock this morning. She probably will ascend the river to Taulillac with the afternoon tide.

FOURTH WILL BE WELCOMED EARLY SUNDAY

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Columbus, O., March 1.—Columbus will celebrate the return of the Fourth Regiment, O. N. G., from the Mexican border at 10 o'clock Sunday morning with a parade and exercises in the state house grounds. It was announced today.

The first section of the Fourth is expected to arrive in Columbus at 9:30 Sunday morning.

The second section including companies from Chillicothe, Circleville and Lancaster, will arrive 15 minutes later and are expected to remain in Columbus for the celebration here.

FOUR DROWN AT BALTIMORE

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Baltimore, Md., March 1.—Four persons were drowned, three of them actresses, when a taxicab containing a party of seven plunged into the harbor from a Light street wharf early today. The bodies were recovered. The dead are: Miss Edna King, of New York, member of the Pat White Gaiety Girls Company; Miss Anna Rogers, of the same company; Miss Mary Woods, Brunswick, N. J.; E. L. Gordon, Pittsburg. One of the survivors is William Grimes, of Pittsburg. The party was returning from an amusement park.

WILSON MAY BE ACCORDED FULL POWER

House May Insert Clause Removed by Senate in Giving Sweeping Powers to President.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Washington, March 1.—Spurred by the developments of the international situation, the House today took up the bill to clothe the President with authority to deal with the German submarine menace under an agreement to vote after three hours debate.

The statement was made officially that the White House stands behind the bill drawn in the Senate, "first, last and all the time," and does not approve the House bill in its entirety because it does not provide the "other instrumentalities" which the President desires, and proposes to refuse war insurance to ships carrying munitions.

The portions the Administration wants may be inserted on the floor of the House after the bill gets to the Senate.

At the outset of the House debate, Chairman Flood aroused intense enthusiasm on both sides.

Every reference to American willingness to protect the rights of citizens wherever they had a right to travel was met with a volley of applause.

ELIMINATE FUNDS FOR NEW PROBE

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Washington, March 1.—Provision for $400,000 for the Federal Trade Commission investigation of the food crisis was stricken from the sundry civil bill by the Senate Appropriations Committee today. As ordered reported, the bill carries $139,925,513.

DENMARK GOES DRY

(Associated Press Cable.)
London, March 1.—The sale of all spirits and other alcoholic liquors has been prohibited in Denmark, according to a Reuter dispatch from Copenhagen. The order is temporary and calls for returns to be made on all stocks of spirits in the country.

GERMANS LOSE DOCUMENTS WHEN OFFICE IS ROBBED

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Juarez, Mexico, March 1.—The German Consulate here was robbed late last night and a number of important official papers were reported to have been taken from files of Consul Max Weber, who has been in charge of the consular and diplomatic affairs for the German Government in northern Mexico.

REPLY FROM AUSTRIA TO BE FRIENDLY

Such Is Forecast Given by Penfield Who Says Note Will Be Ready Within Week.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Vienna, Wednesday, February 28.—Via Berlin, and wireless to Bayville, March 1.—The American Ambassador Frederick C. Penfield, informed the Associated Press today that he expected the reply of the Austrian government to the American memorandum concerning the new submarine warfare regulations in about one week.

The statement is made here that a break between the two countries is now less probable.

The correspondent is informed that the reply of the Austro-Hungarian government will be extremely conciliatory; and while it may not dispose definitely of all pending questions, it will leave open the way for further discussions between Washington and Vienna.

The Vienna Government continues to examine in the most careful manner every phase of international law and naval warfare brought up in the American government's inquiry regarding Austria's adherence to the naval measures of the Central Powers.

Bernstorff Aided in Dark Plot to Have Japan and Mexico Attack U. S.

MEXICO WAS TO GET 3 AMERICAN STATES

Associated Press Obtains Evidence of Germany's Efforts to Strike America in Back.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Washington, March 1.—Germany, in planning unrestricted submarine warfare, and counting its consequences, proposed an alliance with Mexico and Japan to make war on the United States, if this country should not remain neutral.

Japan, through Mexican mediation, was to be urged to abandon her allies and join in the attack on the United States.

Mexico, for her reward, was to receive general financial support from Germany, conquer Texas, New Mexico and Arizona—lost provinces—and share in the victorious peace terms Germany contemplated.

Details were left to German Minister von Eckhardt in Mexico City, who, by instructions signed by German Foreign Minister Zimmermann at Berlin, January 19, 1917, was directed to propose the alliance with Mexico to General Carranza, and suggest that Mexico seek to bring Japan into the plot.

These instructions were transmitted to von Eckhardt through Count von Bernstorff, former German Ambassador here, now on his way home to Germany under a safe conduct obtained from his enemies by the country against which he was plotting war. Germany pictured to Mexico, by broad intimation, England and the entente allies defeated, Germany and her allies triumphant and in world domination by the instrument of unrestricted submarine warfare.

A copy of Zimmermann's instructions to von Eckhardt, sent through von Bernstorff, is in possession of the United States Government. It is as follows:

"On the first of February we intend to begin submarine warfare unrestricted. In spite of this, it is our intention to endeavor to keep neutral the United States of America. If this attempt is not successful we propose an alliance on the following basis with Mexico: That we shall make war together and together make peace. We shall give general financial support and it is understood that Mexico is to reconquer the lost territory in New Mexico, Texas and Arizona. The details are left to you for settlement. You are instructed to inform the president of Mexico of the above in the greatest confidence as soon as it is certain that there will be an outbreak of war with the United States and suggest that the president of Mexico on his own initiative should communicate with Japan suggesting adherence at once to this plan; at the same time, offer to mediate between Germany and Japan. Please call to the attention of the president of Mexico that the employment of ruthless submarine warfare now promises to compel England to make peace in a few months."

"ZIMMERMAN."

This document has been in the hands of the government since President Wilson broke off diplomatic relations with Germany. It has been kept secret while the President has been asking Congress for full authority to deal with Germany and while Congress has been hesitating. It was in the President's hands while Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg was declaring that the United States had placed an interpretation on the submarine declaration "never intended by

PLAN PURCHASE OF CEMETERY ADDITION

Eleven Acres of Riley Land, Immediately West of Present Cemetery, Plot Considered.

TRACT IS PRICED AT $300 PER ACRE

Joint Session of the Township Trustees and Council May Be Held in Near Future to Pass on Proposition.

Announcement was made Thursday afternoon of the proposed purchase of ten or eleven acres of the J. N. Riley lands, immediately west of the Washington Cemetery to form a new addition to the cemetery, and this proposal is now receiving the serious consideration of the Union township trustees, so that in all probability the matter may be presented to an early joint session of the trustees and Council for definite action.

The owner of the tract has offered the land at $300 per acre, this price being made by Mr. Riley at a session of the trustees and Councilman Sheets, Thursday morning.

The land in question is bounded on the north by Washington avenue; on the east by the present cemetery; on the south by the Pennsylvania railroad, and on the west by the D. T. McLean lands. It is nearly level, sloping gradually south-westward and west. Possession of the land could be obtained next fall.

During the past eight or ten years repeated efforts have been made to enlarge the Washington cemetery, and reports of Superintendent Gosard have disclosed the necessity for additional room at an early date.

One of the proposals considered was purchasing a tract across the pike to the north of the present cemetery, but this plan was discouraged by some that as soon as the new addition becomes separated from the old by a roadway, the old cemetery would be neglected, and there would be two distinct cemeteries.

Another plan, which was nearly adopted some three or four years ago was to purchase the bottom lands and the remainder of the Taylor tract east of the cemetery. After due deliberations this was turned down as impractical because of the large amount of low lands which would be unfit for burial purposes until a fill of six to ten feet was made, and the fact that the creek would divide the proposed addition.

When the last previous attempt was made to increase the size of the cemetery, it was urged that the present grounds would soon be filled to capacity, and that new burial grounds must be had somewhere and without long delay, as it would require considerable expense and several years of preparation to place the new addition, wherever located, in condition for burial purposes. It was pointed out that in addition to properly draining the new addition it would be necessary to grade it, construct driveways, plant scores of trees and otherwise prepare the grounds in keeping with the present cemetery.

Dr. Silbaugh narrowly escaped death in a similar manner some two months ago, at which time the same weapon was accidentally discharged in the same manner and the charge, barely missing the doctor's head, tore a hole in the top of the auto.

The deceased leaves a widow and two children.

DR. SILBAUGH OF CHILLICOTHE DIES INSTANTLY

Was in Act of Pulling Shotgun From Auto When Weapon Was Discharged—Almost Similar Accident Occurred 2 Months Ago.

Dr. W. H. Silbaugh, widely known physician of Chillicothe, was instantly killed at six o'clock Thursday morning while in the act of removing a shotgun from his automobile. The weapon was discharged and the entire load penetrated his chest, tearing open his heart.

Dr. Silbaugh had arisen early with the intention of motoring to Asheville where he owned a farm, and the shotgun was loaded and wrapped in a blanket. While adjusting the weapon in the car the hammers struck against

SERVICES END TONIGHT

At the earnest solicitation of a great many Dr. Tilock will remain over tonight and will preach his last sermon in the Christian church tonight beginning at 7:30. He will speak on "Special Divine Influence in Conversion."

Standing room last night was all taken and many went away. At the invitation three went forward to make a start in the better life.

FRANK BRAKEFIELD RESIDENCE DAMAGED

Fire, originating from an overheated furnace, resulted in the fire department being summoned to the Frank Brakefield residence on Clinton avenue, Thursday morning, and a second run was made sometime later when the fire broke forth anew from sparks which had lodged between the plastering and weatherboarding.

The floor above the furnace was damaged and the loss entailed probably will not exceed $50.

For some little time smoke poured from various parts of the house having penetrated between the weatherboarding and plastering.

TO RESUME PAVING WORK THIS MONTH

Paving work in this city, halted by the winter weather last December, will be resumed sometime this month and by the middle of the spring it is expected that virtually all paving work to be done in the city this year will have been completed.

The chief work is the paving of South Fayette street, the contract of which is in the hands of Wilt, Hollin and Kelley, and part of the work has been completed.

All brick for the S. Fayette street have been on the ground for some time.

North Main street and Ogle street will be paved during the present year.

SPRING IMPROVEMENTS ADD ATTRACTIVENESS

Under the direction of Mr. Harris Marchant, who has the building in charge, the Murry rooms occupied by the Washington C. H. Auto and Tire Co., operated by Messrs Jamison and Johnson, have been undergoing spring redecorating and a number of improvements which add immensely to its attractive interior appearance.

The mural decorations are especially effective in shades of tan and old ivory, with conventional border in deeper tint.

The work has just been completed.

GOSPEL TEAM TO BE BUSY SUNDAY

PROVISION FOR CLEAN STREETS STILL IN COURT

Prompt and Definite Action Is Necessary to Alleviate Suffering Due to Filthy Streets, if Court Action Does Not Tie Hands of Council.

Prospects for clean streets during the coming season are still gloomy, and unless some definite and prompt action is taken by the City Council, clouds of dust, filthy streets and almost unbearable conditions will again be experienced by residents on the paved streets.

The street flushing is still tied up in the courts, and the next hearing of the case, resulting from the Safety-Service Director casting two votes in an attempt to award the flushing contract, will not take place until May or June, according to a statement made Thursday morning by Solicitor Gregg.

Solicitor Gregg states that if other legislation is not enacted, and other provision made for flushing or otherwise cleaning the streets, the prospect of clean streets is very remote, as the flushing case is in the hands of the court of appeals to which court it was carried after the common pleas court had made a finding for the City.

It is pointed out that after the case is heard in the appellate court it may be weeks before a decision is rendered, and then many weeks would elapse if the job is again offered in the usual manner.

During this month the streets will give great annoyance, and this will increase with each succeeding month unless prompt and decisive steps are taken to clean the streets in some manner.

Virtually all citizens are willing, it is announced, to pay any reasonable special assessment for street cleaning purposes, and are hopeful that some system will be adopted without delay, so that the streets may be placed in sanitary condition and that homes may be occupied with some degree of comfort.

REGARDING THE MOST IMPORTANT TOOTH IN MOUTH

(This is the third of a series of articles submitted by Miss Anna Laura Sutton, Welfare nurse, on Oral Hygiene, and is of great interest.—Ed.)

The most important tooth in the mouth. If the United States Agricultural Department were to state that a certain part of farming which heretofore had been neglected was more important than any other, wouldn't you immediately inquire into that particular subject and see where it affected your income? You would if you were a farmer.

If the National Dental Association or the American Medical Association were to say that many deformities of the jaws and the face were directly and indirectly associated with a certain tooth and that particular tooth was the most neglected of all, wouldn't you inquire into that subject and see where it affected your child? This is what we are going to do now.

The most important tooth of all is the first one of the permanent set to appear. Being first, it naturally follows that all others are built around it. If this tooth is out of place so will be all the others. This first permanent tooth (called the six year molar) forms the keystone of the arch, so to speak. When the mouth is closed the teeth should come together in a locking position. If even one tooth is out of place, this locking arrangement is broken up and interferes with the proper chewing of food. Isn't it important, then, that the first permanent tooth should occupy its proper place in jaw?

The loss of no other tooth is followed by so many and so marked evil effects. The removal of the main support of the jaws arrests the natural

America's Greatest Resource

Few, if any, are the nations but which have resources that, properly handled, would make them great.

Our own land as regards national resources, is more fortunate than any land on earth, all things taken under consideration. But rich as we are in fertile lands, in mines, forests and other natural resources our crowning good fortune comes in our American men—a breed that is the composite of the best of all nations, moulded in the splendid freedom of the best government on earth and having advantages such as are known in no other country.

"A nation is made great not by its fruitful acres, but by the men who cultivate them; not by its great forests, but by the men who work in them; not by its railroads, but by the men who run them; America was a great land when Columbus discovered it; Americans have made it a great nation."

Such a statement, just as true as when first made many decades ago, is well worth reprinting and rereading.

It is the men of America who have made our country great in the past and, despite prattling about the "feminization" of the nation, will continue to hold up its supremacy among the nations of the world.

There is no more inspiring example of the best type of patriotism before the world today than Thomas A. Edison, just an "out-and-out American" at the age of 70 years, devoting his genius to his country.

The Edisons, old and young, not all possessing the power and glory of the "Wizard of Menlo Park," but placing their lesser talents at the country's disposal, are typical of true Americanism and represent the resourcefulness of such a nation as ours—a nation made by men.

Genius and the War

It is impossible, at this time, to arrive at a reliable estimate of the tremendous consequences of the great war. Its unprecedented magnitude, the uncertainty of its duration, and the far reaching radius of its tentacles make the question too complex for sound conjecture.

The world has been terribly wounded. Each day of the war's continuance brings fresh wounds. But time only can tell the exact effect of these.

Nations will have to begin again, weighted by oppressing financial burdens; manufacturing the world over will suffer from the decreased population; the world's business interests generally will be crippled not only by the men lost but by those who come back from the trenches transformed by the strenuous life of war and unable to immediately return to the precise requirements of business; it will take time to restore to international shipping what it has lost through the great struggle.

These are a few of the bigger things. There are countless smaller consequences.

One deplorable feature of the war is its ruthless exactions on the ranks of genius. Painters, sculptors, poets, novelists, singers, actors and composers—masters and masters-in-bry—are dying daily in the trenches alongside of millhands, laborers and petty clerks.

There is no discrimination. Ambitious rulers and counselors, it seems, have no thought for art and posterity; they have their own private ends to attain. Some day posterity will go to point an accusing hand at their gravestones and ask why. But that doesn't matter. Posterity will have no power to thwart them while they live and covet.

This is one of the most important periods in the history of the world. It will be a momentous turning point in many respects. Genius is needed to preserve its image and seek out its soul for posterity. For that reason genius should be protected.

True, to attempt to discriminate would be to face difficulties. But they are difficulties that should be seriously weighed and dealt with. For instance, there are two classes of artists—those who have "arrived" and those who have not. The latter are those who have not yet attained any great measure of success and have not been "recognized."

"The former are artists of known talent recognized by membership in the greater art societies of the various nations. These, at least, it would seem, might well be spared compulsory military service, or at all events, service that takes them to the firing line.

Poetry For Today

TO THE CAPTAIN

Scarred is my face, O Captain!
Begrimed with battle smoke;
The armor that once shone so bright:
Is bruised by foeman's stroke.

My eye is dimmed, O Captain!
My breath a feeble gasp;
Of my good sword the hilt alone
Remains within my grasp.

I've fought the fight, O Captain!
No laurels crown my brow;
Perchance I've won, perchance I've lost;

Yet I salute thee now.

I crave no boon, O Captain!
Save one glance at thy face,
And that my head upon thine arm
May rest one breathing space.

Bind up my wounds, O Captain!
Thy touch alone will heal;
Renew my armor, hacked and dimmed
Restore my sword of steel.

Then, armed afresh, my Captain,
Thy blessing give anew;
And send me forth to fight once more
Once more thy work to do.

Lima, O., March 1.—State Fire Marshal E. B. Buckley of Dayton, an appointee of ex-Governor Willis, announced during a speech before the Ohio Fire Prevention association that he will resign from office.

Six Prisoners Escape.

Ironton, O., March 1.—Six prisoners in the Lawrence county jail made their escape when they pried loose bars of the cells in which they were confined. One of the prisoners, Andy Deiprest, was sentenced to the penitentiary Monday on a charge of cutting to kill.

New York Asks For Help.

Columbus, March 1.—The New York food committee, which has taken up the task of feeding the hungry in that city, asked the state board of agriculture if Ohio could furnish the metropolis with potatoes in large quantities. The committee was informed that Ohio's supply of potatoes is not large enough for its own use.

New York, March 1.—Excited and hysterical protest against high food prices has subsided in New York in favor of the more dignified and effective boycott. Alone Mrs. Ida Harris paraded through the financial districts with a banner of protest. None of the wailing housewives of other days followed her lead. Prices continued to fall rapidly, but housewives are still firm in their refusal to purchase. Speculators are making frantic efforts to unload huge stores of provisions accumulated in their ware houses. Potatoes stood wavering after a decrease of from $2 to $3 a barrel. Onions went down rapidly, as did poultry.

OFFICIAL CONFIRMATION OF GERMAN INTRIGUE

Germany," and that Germany had promoted and honored friendly relations with the United States "as an heirloom from Frederick the Great."

Of itself, if there were no other, it is considered a sufficient answer to the German Chancellor's plaint that the United States "brusquely" broke off relations without giving "authentic" reason for its action.

The document supplies the missing link to many separate chains of circumstances which until now have seemed to lead to no definite point. It sheds new light upon the frequently reported but indefinite movements of the Mexican Government to couple its situation with the friction between the United States and Japan. It adds another chapter to the celebrated report of Jules Cambon, French Ambassador in Berlin before the war, Germany's world wide plans for stirring strife on every continent where they might aid her in the struggle for world domination which she dreamed was close at hand. It adds a climax to the operations of Count von Bernstorff and the German embassy in this country which have been colored in passport frauds, charges of dynamite plots and intrigue the full extent of which never has been published.

Plot to Split America.

It gives new credence to persistent reports of submarine bases on Mexican territory in the Gulf of Mexico; it takes cognizance of a fact long recognized by American army chiefs, that if Japan ever undertook to invade the United States it probably would be through Mexico, over the border and into the Mississippi Valley to split the country in two. It recalls that Count von Bernstorff when handed his passports was very reluctant to return to Germany but expressed a preference for asylum in Cuba.

It gives a new explanation to the repeated arrests on the border of men charged by American military authorities with being German intelligence agents.

Last of all it seems to show a connection with General Carranza's recent proposal to neutrals that exports of food and ammunitions to the entente allies be cut off, and an intimation that he might stop the supply of oil, so vital to the British navy, which is exported from Tampico fields.

Carranza's peace proposal was openly pronounced an evidence of German influence in Mexico, by officials here, who declared it was intended only to embarrass the United States. Then apparently, some influences showed their effect on the course of the Mexican government and on Feb. 25 Cabrera, the minister of finance, issued a statement, describing the "amazement" of the Mexican government that the American newspapers should have interpreted General Carranza's proposal to cut off exports of munitions as a suggestion that he might cut off shipments of British oil.

They were, Cabrera declared, "entirely groundless," and that feature of the situation ended. There was an intimation that Germany's astounding proposal that Japan turn traitor to her allies had been answered by Tokio.

Count von Bernstorff's connection with the plot, further than serving as the channel of communication, is intensified by the fact that the German embassy here was not merely the medium of delivering a message in this instance, but was really a sort of headquarters for all the German missions in Central and South America.

The German naval attaché, Captain Boyed, and the military attaché, Captain von Papen, whose recall was forced by the state department because of their military activities in this country, also were accredited to Mexico, and between the outbreak of the war and their departure from this country made at least one visit there.

For months many naval officers here have believed that the mysterious German sea raiders of the South Atlantic must have found a base somewhere on the Mexican coast, and that such a base could not be maintained without the knowledge and consent of Mexican officials. Last November the British charge at Mexico City presented to the Carranza foreign office a notification that if it was discovered that Mexican neutrality thus had been violated the allies would take "drastic measures" to prevent a continuance of that situation.

In a note almost insolent in tone Foreign Minister Aguilar replied to the charge that, in effect, it was the business of the allies to keep German submarines out of Western waters, and that if they were not kept out Mexico would adopt whatever course the circumstances might command.

Last July, when W. H. Schweitz, who claimed to be a former German army officer, escaped into Mexico at Nogales after arrest on similar charges, the Deputy Marshal who tried to follow him was stopped by Mexican authorities.

May Never Be Known.

The full extent of the evidence of Germany's plotting against the United States, gathered by the American Secret Service, may become known only according to the course of the future relations between the two countries. It is known that much evidence of the operations of the German Embassy and persons who were responsible to it never has been permitted to come out, because officials preferred to guard against inflaming the public mind in the tense situation with Germany. The public amazement which a full exposition of the evidence in the hands of the government will cause can not be overestimated.

YVES ANDRE BOUGET WITH MODEL OF HIS NON-SINKABLE LIFE-BOAT

A collapsible nonsinkable steel lifeboat has just been patented by Yves Andre Bouget, a native of Philadelphia, which will probably be used by the United States in case of war. The picture shows Mr. Bouget with a model of his boat. The inventor has been working on the idea for three years and is planning to give demonstrations of the new craft in waters in and near Philadelphia.

SOLID WEST SAVES WILSON

(By American Press)

Washington, March 1.—"Woodrow Wilson would have been hopelessly defeated in the last election had he not kept this country out of war," Senator LaFollette, chief opponent in the senate of the administration's foreign policy, declared in a speech on the revenue bill. "The only thing that saved Mr. Wilson was the vote of the west, where 99 out of 100 persons would now vote against war," Senator LaFollette continued. "I made my campaign for re-election on a platform that opposed preparedness. It is not preparedness, it is war. I was re-elected by a majority of 118,000."

In Social Circles

"The Whittier News," published at Whittier, Cal., contains the following account of a fiftieth wedding day celebration, which will be read with interest by friends of the bride and bridegroom of fifty years, formerly Fayette cousins. Mrs. Miller was Susan E. Mark.

"Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Miller celebrated their golden wedding anniversary yesterday under extremely pleasant circumstances; at noon they had a large company of former University Place, Nebraska friends in to luncheon and in the evening a reception was given them at the First Methodist church where they are valued members.

The Miller home at 120 North Painter avenue, one of the most hospitable in the Quaker city, was attractively adorned for the occasion with golden yellow acacia blossoms and garlands of smilax. In the archway separating the two living rooms, a wedding bell made of the beautiful yellow acacia blossoms, with clapper of a yellow golden orange, was suspended and on either side of this were shields bearing the numerals in gold "1867" and "1917." Everywhere were reminders of the golden wedding, for all the flowers used were yellow, and the satin ribbons used in the decorations were also in this suggestive color.

The place cards at the luncheon table were hand decorated with yellow blossoms and the first course was served in individual orange baskets, the small handles tied with yellow satin ribbon. The same motif was successfully carried out in the other three courses.

Twenty-five guests were seated. Mrs. Miller wore a taupe gown, lace trimmed and a corsage bouquet of natural orange blossoms. Rev. I. B. Bradrick the father of Mrs. M. G. McCaslin, was the officiating clergyman who married Mr. and Mrs. Miller in Fayette County, Ohio, just fifty years ago. Mrs. McCaslin has a book of records in which her father recorded this wedding with other interesting events of the time. After the golden wedding anniversary Mr. and Mrs. Miller followed their usual custom of attending prayer meeting and at its close were tendered a reception in the social hall of the church. Rev. J. W. Hart gave reminiscences of their courtship, beautifully written by Miss Rhea Rainier and read by Mrs. O. D. Couch.

Of the seventy invited guests of 50 years ago there are now living Mr. and Mrs. John Craig, of Jeffersonville road; Mrs. Lewis Coffman, Washington C. H.; Mr. Samuel Carr, South Bolton; Nathan Miller, Cherokee, Okla.

At the Methodist Episcopal Parsonage Tuesday morning, Rev. J. J. Richards united in marriage Miss Gladis Cartwright, of Sabina, and Charles Kingery, of Roseville. Also Miss Chloe Cartwright, of Sabina, a sister of the other bride, and Percy Shafer, of Washington C. H.—Wilmingtong News.

Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Blackmore and mother, Mrs. Mary Blackmore entertained at a highly enjoyable dinner Wednesday at their home on Gregg street. Carnations were used in decoration.

The guests were Rev. Tillock, of Piqua, Rev. G. E. Groves, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Robey and daughter Alberta.

Mrs. George A. Robinson gave charming entertainment to the young Matrons Bridge Club, Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. A. C. Henkle and daughter, Mrs. George Sheets extended the hospitality of their home to the Woman's Guild of the First Presbyterian church, Wednesday afternoon.

There was a large attendance and the afternoon made thoroughly pleasurable in its sociability. A tempting collation was served.

Entertaining with Mrs. Henkle and Mrs. Sheets were Mesdames Wm. Spronger, Martin Hamm, H. L. Stitt, Chas. Gage and Creath.

The Wesley Chapel Mite Society held their meeting at the home of President, Mrs. O. S. Tobin, Wednesday afternoon with a large attendance of members and visitors.

It was the annual election of officers of which Mrs. Tobin was re-elected President, Mrs. H. V. Rogers, vice President; Mrs. Lester Dodd; Secretary; Mrs. Bennett King, Treasurer; Mrs. T. P. Watts, pianist.

Mrs. Vordenfiet, and Mrs. Boyd favored the society with a piano duet and Mrs. Boyd with a vocal solo. Mrs. Henry Willis also gave a piano selection.

tion. Refreshments were served and a social hour enjoyed.

The Young Women's Foreign Missionary Society was delightfully entertained at a Kensington Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Fred Mark, with assisting hostesses Mesdames Brooks Hughey, Martin Hughey, Herman Price, J. H. Chapman, Misses Elizabeth Sheen and Dorothy Saxton.

The afternoon was enjoyed by a large representation of the members and a few privileged guests who were eligible to membership.

The daintiest of refreshments were served.

A large family connection and many friends in this county will read with interest an account of the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Scott Ball, taken from "The Holden Progress."

Mr. and Mrs. Ball, after spending some months with relatives in this section stopped in Missouri enroute to their home in Oregon, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Donohoe of this city, were also guests at the anniversary. The "Progress" says in part:

"Mr. and Mrs. Howard Ball of Enid, Okla., entertained the members of the Ball family Monday, to celebrate the fiftieth wedding anniversary of Mr. Ball's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Ball of Ashland, Ore. More than 40 of the relatives met at Holden to congratulate the guests of honor on the achievement of their golden anniversary. They received many handsome gifts, among them gold coins, a cameo brooch, gold embroidery and a gold lined tea service of Sheffield plate.

Malissa Larrimer and Winfield Scott Ball were married February 19, 1867 at the home of the bride's father Thomas Larrimer in Bloomingburg, Ohio, and in the fall of that year the young Civil War "veteran" and his bride joined a company going west.

Through the ill health of Mr. Ball they became perpetual pioneers and after locating in various sections of the west, Mr. Ball used his soldier's right and in Nebraska filed on a homestead, building their home with the help of other pioneers.

Mrs. W. W. Millikan hospitably entertained the Eucher Club Thursday afternoon.

LYCEUM COMPANY AHEAD OF TIME

Jeffersonville citizens were somewhat surprised, Thursday morning, when The Cradford-Adams Company, next number of the lyceum course in that place, arrived for a concert which they claimed was to be given tonight.

The Redpath Bureau had announced that the company would give their entertainment Friday night. When the management at Jeffersonville learned of the mix-up in dates the telephone was placed in use and the entertainment will be held tonight accordingly.

SCORE ATTEND THE NOONDAY LUNCHEON

A score or more of business men attended the Thursday noon luncheon at the Y. M. C. A.

No business of importance was discussed, but several small matters received attention, including the matter of a reception for the boys of Company M. No plans were made that would conflict with a reception planned by the D. A. R. but it was urged that an effort be made to have a great body of citizens meet the homecoming troops Sunday afternoon. A message from some concern interested in promoting city-gardening was read, but no definite action taken.

It was announced that in all probability some member of the Cincinnati Auto Club, probably President Morgan, would be here next Thursday in the interest of the Cincinnati to Wheeling auto highway.

We have a fine supply of tenderloin, backbones, spareribs, home-cured ham and fresh fish. White Tile Meat Market.

Corns Peel Right Off With "Gets-It"

2 Drops, and the Corn is a "Goner!"
When you've got to walk on the sides of your shoes to get away from those awful corn-pains, there's only one common-sense thing to do.

Use "Gets-It" Your Corns Won't Swell in Water. Besides, They'll Shrink, Loosen and Peel Off!

Put 2 or 3 drops of "Gets-It" on the corn right away. Pain and inflammation will disappear, the corn will begin to shrivel from that instant—then it loosens and falls right off. There's no other corn-remover in the world that acts like "Gets-It." No new discovery has been made in corn-removers since "Gets-It" was born. Don't forget that fact. "Gets-It" does away forever with the use of salves that irritate, bandages that make a bundle of your toe, plasters that half do the work, knives and scissors that draw blood. Use "Gets-It"—no more digging or cutting. "Gets-It" is sold everywhere, 25c a bottle, or sent on receipt of price by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill.

Sold in Washington C. H., and recommended as the worlds best corn remedy by Brown's Drug Store and Blackmer & Tanquary's Drug

SPEAKER BACK AT HIS DESK IN CAPITOL

Wants Hunter's License Law Preserved at All Costs—Capital City Affairs.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Columbus, O., March 1.—General John C. Speaks for the last eight months commander of the Second Brigade of the Ohio National Guard on the Mexican border, is back on the job as head of the state fish and game department. He said today he did not care to enter into the controversy relative to the bill passed by the General Assembly placing quail on the song bird list.

"There is one thing, however," said General Speaks, "that I am vitally interested in and that is preservation of the hunters license law."

Senator Lloyd of Franklin county has introduced a bill in the Senate which seeks to amend the present hunters license law by including fishermen and requiring fishermen to have a license. It changes the law from "hunters" license to "sportsmen" license.

Some legislators say there are sleepers in the bill which might knock out the hunters license entirely and thereby deprive the state fish and game department of a large revenue. For instance, the bill provides for licensing "male" sportsmen. This is said to make the law not of uniform operation and might invalidate the law.

The Blausser bill placing the quail in the protected class has not yet finally passed the legislature. It was in the hands of a conference committee of the two houses today over the question of removing Carolina doves from the protected list. Even if the state should provide an open season this year for Carolina doves it is said the federal laws protect that bird at the time the Ohio law would make it lawful to kill them and that this amendment is not important.

As a result of the failure of the legislature to provide any permanent relief for debt-burdened municipalities and taxing districts it is said to be a foregone conclusion that constitutional amendments will be proposed to the voters, probably at the next election, to provide a means of relief. Single tax and classification of property probably will be submitted, it is reported.

President Alston Ellis, of Ohio university at Athens, appearing before the Senate committee on colleges and universities yesterday, bitterly opposed the Lloyd bill proposing to change the name of Ohio State university to University of Ohio. The Senate has adopted the Lloyd bill proposing the changing of the name of Otterbein university of Ohio to Otterbein College.

Senator Robert O'Brien of Cincinnati stands sponsor for a resolution that has been sent to Congressman Longworth by certain Cincinnati people, opposed to woman's suffrage, asking him to propose an amendment to the federal constitution which would give the electors of each state and not legislatures the power to ratify or reject proposed amendments to the constitution. Senator O'Brien says all friends of the initiative and referendum should be for it.

The committee on constitutional amendments in the Senate has recommended for adoption the joint resolution by Senator Agnew providing for a consolidation of city and county governments in countries having cities of 100,000 population or over.

A GOOD INVESTMENT

With the approach of spring and warm weather comes the annoyance of flies, ants and bugs of all kinds. Now is the time to kill the egg and exterminate the disease carriers. There is nothing finer than "Killo" for this purpose. It is death to bugs and germs of all kinds. It disinfects and kills all bad odors. It is non-poisonous and does not stain or injure any kind of fabric. It is put up in powdered form or can be used diluted with water. It is sure death to chicken lice, moths, ants, bedbugs, roaches, flies and germs of all kinds. It is fine for sore throat and for sores and wounds of all kinds. Help in the campaign against disease by using Killo. Put up in 15c and 25c cans. Ask your grocer for it.

FIVE KILLED 12 INJURED AT CROSSING

Jitney Bus Struck By Freight at Lima Crossing.

Lima, O., March 1.—Five dead and twelve injured in the hospital, at least two of whom will die, was the toll of a jitney bus accident here last night.

Twenty-two homeward bound employees of the Ohio steel foundry were buried through the air and beneath train wheels when a Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton freight struck the bus.

Peter Bailey, owner and driver of the bus, was arrested an hour after the accident on order of Coroner Hart. The dead: James O'Connor, assistant general foreman; Samuel Daley, molder; Peter Walencas, helper; Ronald Crites, seventeen, Cridersville, O. Fatally injured: Louis Schupp, neck broken; Oscar M. Lease, craneman, skull fractured and lungs pierced.

Daley, the driver, who was the only man in the bus to escape with slight injuries, was unable to explain the accident.

Eye-witnesses say he was driving south on a road paralleling the track and in the same direction the train was going. He speeded up, they declare, and attempted to cross the tracks ahead of the last freight. The bus was struck squarely in the side, turned completely around and its living freight scattered over a radius of 150 feet.

CAPTAIN JACK CRAWFORD DIES

(By American Press)
New York, March 1.—John Wallace, better known as "Captain Jack" Crawford, a noted Indian fighter of early frontier days, died at his home at Wood Haven, Long Island. He was stricken with pneumonia more than a month ago. Captain Crawford wrote a number of plays, stories and poems and was known as the "Poet Scout." He was chief of scouts under General Custer at the time of the Custer massacre, out it is said that he was on his way to Custer's headquarters with dispatches when this event took place. Later he played an active part in the pursuit of Sitting Bull.

Common Law Marriage Revived.
Albany, N. Y., March 1.—Hundreds of children, seemingly born out of wedlock, have been given the shield of legitimacy by a decision of the court of appeals restoring the legality of common law marriages since 1907 made illegal by a bill passed in 1907 and subsequently repealed in 1907. By reviving the common law marriage the court has made marriage a mere matter of civil contract.

PHILIPPINES SHOW RAPID GROWTH IN PRODUCTIONS

(Associated Press Cable)

Manila, March 1.—Last year saw an increase of more than 100 per cent in the Philippine production of manila, according to statements at the insular bureau of agriculture. Where 1915 saw 59,940 bales of this fibre sent to the market, 1916 saw 129,263 bales.

There was also a slight increase in the Philippine production of hemp the 915 figures of 1,011,336 bales having been increased to 1,174,653 bales.

The prices of both fibres were considerably higher last year than in 1915—an item which spelled great prosperity for the fibre men of the islands.

AMERICAN LOST

New York, March 1.—William Evans, who was lost when the steamship Lancia was torpedoed off the Irish coast Sunday night, was an American citizen, according to an announcement by Cunard line officials here. He was seventy-four years old and lived in California, where he was interested in mining properties. He served in the civil war as a marine on the Union side, it was said.

DRY BILLS GO THROUGH

Washington, March 1.—Prohibition won a double victory in congress when the house passed, by a vote of 273 to 137, the senate bill to make the national capital dry, and the senate and house conferees on the postal appropriation bill unexpectedly announced an agreement under which the Reed bone dry amendment is virtually assured of enactment.

This district bill, which would become effective Nov. 1, was brought to a vote after a stubborn opposition had delayed for several hours the final rollcall, which the leaders knew would mean passage. Failing to displace the bill or to force an adjournment, the filibusters centered their attention on an effort to add amendments that would throw it into conference and prevent enactment at this session. They made their last stand on an amendment that would have given the people of the district a referendum on the proposal and would have put into the measure a provision prohibiting importation of liquor for personal use. This was voted down, 170 to 232. Various other amendments were rejected by similar majorities.

BRITISH TAKE MORE WORKS FROM TEUTONS

Occupy German Positions on Both Sides of the Ancre.

London, March 1.—On both sides of the Ancre river in France the British forces continue to make progress. North of the stream the important village of Gommecourt and the village of Puzieux-au-Mont and trench systems near them have been captured, while south of the river the forces which previously had taken Ligny pushed eastward and occupied Thillo, about five miles southwest of Bapaume, and a trench at Sully-Sailly.

The capture of Gommecourt was followed by driving of the British 1,000 yards further east of that place. Whether the Germans offered resistance on any of these sectors is not stated.

On the remainder of the front in France and Belgium minor attacks and artillery duels continue. Near Clercy, Arras and Lens successful raids were carried out by the British; and a raid northeast of Armentieres was repulsed.

Comparative quiet prevails in Rouss and Galicia. Along the northwestern frontier of Roumania, in the Jacoben-Kimpolung sector, the Teutons have captured several hill positions from the Russians and taken more than 1,300 men prisoner.

In the Tigris region the British, in quest of Bagdad, are following up the Turks recently driven out of Kut-el-Amara.

TAXATION BILL GOES TO HOUSE

Only One Vote Cast Against the Measure.

NOW GOES TO THE HOUSE

Labor Bill Prohibiting Political Coercion by Employers Passes House. Appropriations For Good Roads Pledged—School Savings Banks In Ohio—Other Proceedings of the General Assembly.

Columbus, March 1.—The house has passed the White senate bill, pledging appropriations annually demanded by the federal act providing $2,000,000 for highways in Ohio the next five years. The state must furnish a sum equal to that offered by the federal government.

Employers who threaten to discharge employees unless they vote for certain candidates or use other forms of coercion in an attempt to influence them politically are subject to $1,000 fine and a year's imprisonment under a bill by Helfrich of Crawford, which passed the house by practically unanimous vote. The measure has the backing of labor unions. It grows out of informal charges by political organizations in the campaign last fall. It next goes to the senate.

Another bill passed is that by Federman, establishing a system of school savings banks in Ohio. Superintendents, principals or teachers designated by boards of education may receive small savings of pupils and place them on interest in banks.

Ohio will have a commissioner of securities, under whose supervision would be placed the blue sky and chattel loan divisions of the state banking department, if the legislature approves the creation of this office, proposed in a measure by Senator Holl, Anzalone county.

Adoption of the report of the commission of former governors recommending erection of a governor's mansion was urged in a special message to the legislature by Governor Cox. The governor recommended an appropriation of $125,000 for the purpose. The report was referred to the finance committee.

If the senate concurs in the Kessler resolution, adopted by the lower house 80 to 13, Ohio people will have opportunity next fall to vote for re-enactment of the former constitutional provision for a poll tax for road purposes. It would be optional with political subdivisions as to whether they want to levy the tax.

Taxation Bill Passed.

The emergency tax bill, drafted by a special bipartisan committee, passed the senate 27 to 1, Senator Timby, who made half dozen futile attempts to amend the measure, casting the negative vote.

The house is expected to pass the measure without alterations, before the end of the week. As it contains an emergency clause, it will be effective as soon as Governor Cox signs it. Machinery thus would be provided for listing of personal property and valuation of real estate, where needed, this spring.

The only changes made in the bill before it was approved by the senate were recommended by the senators and representatives who drafted it. Most important of these was the writing into the act of a clause in the unconstitutional Parrett-Whittemore law, as well as the Warnes law, which prevented county auditors from inspecting bank deposits for the purpose of listing them. The committee omitted this clause from the original draft of the bill on the supposition that it had not been disturbed by the supreme court decision, which knocked out the Parrett-Whittemore law as a whole and was still effective.

Two senators came forward with proposals to reward Ohio guardsmen for their service on the border. Senator Holl's bill authorizes the state to pay each man $10 for each month he has been on duty. This would require a $600,000 appropriation. Each militiaman would receive $80. Senator Holden would give them bronze medals. He seeks a $5,000 appropriation for such.

SIX HIGH FIVES REPRESENTED ON THREE ALL TEAMS

Six of the fifteen High Schools represented in the Southeastern Ohio Basketball tournament, held under the auspices of Ohio university and which ended last Saturday evening, were given positions on the Messenger's three "all tournament" teams. Athens gets all five men, two on the first, and three on the third. Athens undoubtedly had the best all-round team in the tournament and only reason they lost to Portsmouth was Baseman the shooting demon. Baseman and Shunway represent the River City Gallipolis gets one first and two second positions. Gallipolis also had a clever versatile team. Ashville is well represented by Messick and Stoker a forward and a guard respectively on the second quintet, Curry the Chillicothe center and Overly, forward, landed births on the second and third teams respectively. Streevy represents Washington C. H. It will be remembered that Washington C. H. and Ashville had splendid quintets but met defeats early at the hands of Athens and Portsmouth respectively. Gregg of the C. H. team lost a position on the third team by a single vote, being nosed out by Pickering.

The six teams are also represented in the 20 "Roll of Honor" men with entries also from Nelsonville, Logan, McArthur, Stewart, Crooksville, New Lexington and Pomeroy. These Roll of Honor men in many instances were mentioned for the "all" teams. Especially is this true of Gregg, Sharp, Edwards, Armstrong, Taylor, Sauder, Shoemaker and Burnett.

Forwards on the third quintet, on the strength of the voting ballots at hand, Overly and Gregg had been selected. Gregg had nosed out Pickering by one-half of a point. However two ballots arrived later which changed the complexion giving Pickering the shade on Gregg.

Had Washington C. H. and Ashville remained in the tournament to the end undoubtedly those selecting the team would have felt more kindly disposed toward their players. But the ability of Messick, Stoker, Streevy and as well as Gregg is not to be denied representation. They are worthy of positions and are given same.—Athens Messenger.

WAR REFERENDUM IS DEMANDED

(By American Press)

Washington, March 1.—The American Union Against Militarism offered to stand the expense of a postcard referendum of 50,000 Ohio voters on the question of war with Germany, the names to be selected by the Ohio senators from their precinct lists. It is announced that the decision of the answer to the recent speech of Senator Pomerene, in which he said, "George Washington had his Tories, Abraham Lincoln had his copperheads and Woodrow Wilson—well, he has the pacifists." The American Union Against Militarism, which has its headquarters in this city, made public a red-hot letter which Professor Scott Nearing of Toledo university has written to Senator Pomerene challenging him to submit his view to a vote of the people of Ohio.

Ruddy Cheeks—Sparkling Eyes—Most Women Can Have

Says Dr. Edwards, a Well-Known Ohio Physician

Dr. F. M. Edwards for 17 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During these years he gave to his patients a prescription made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. You will know them by their olive color.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter in one's system.

If you have a pale face, yellow look, dull eyes, pimples, coated tongue, headaches, a listless, no-good feeling, all out of sorts, inactive bowels, you take one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly for a time and note the pleasing results.

Thousands of women as well as men take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the successful substitute for calomel—now and then just to keep in the pink of condition. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.
